User - an individual with full legal capacity, utilizing the Newsletter service in compliance with these Regulations and to whom services are provided electronically by the Company;

NEWSLETTER SERVICE TERMS

The Company offers a Newsletter subscription service to Users who willingly opt for it.

To activate the Newsletter subscription service, users need a device with internet access, a current web browser, and a valid email address.

To subscribe to the newsletter, the user completes the following steps:

The user subscribes to the Newsletter service through an interactive form on the Website, providing their email address, accepts the terms of these Regulations, notifies the Company, and activates the service by clicking the link in the email sent to the User at the registered address.

Upon subscribing, the Company and the User enter into an agreement for the provision of the Newsletter service indefinitely.

The User can terminate the contract for the Newsletter service at any time by deactivating the subscription. Unsubscribe from the Newsletter by clicking the link in the email footer sent as part of the service.

The User is prohibited from supplying illicit content.

Protection of Personal Data

The Company acts as the administrator of Users' personal data. It handles Users' personal data related to email addresses solely for the provision of the Newsletter service. This information might be shared with a third party offering technical assistance for the Newsletter. The processing and discontinuation of personal data processing are governed by the Privacy Policy, an essential component of these Regulations, accessible at <https://poznanska11.pl>.

4. COMPLAINTS

The user is entitled to lodge a complaint regarding the newsletter services. A complaint must include sufficient data for user identification and a clear statement of justified objections and feedback on the newsletter. Complaints should be directed to either hello@telaviv.pl or the company's registered office address.

The company reviews complaints within 14 business days, unless the user has not sufficiently described the subject and scope of the complaint or provided the necessary data for identification.

The company sends a response to the complaint to the user's specified email address.

FINAL CLAUSES

The company may modify these regulations due to significant legal reasons (changes in generally applicable legal provisions concerning the company's operations or the form of its operations) or technical reasons (modernization of the website's infrastructure).

Users will receive notification of Regulation changes via email sent seven days prior to the new Regulations taking effect. Within this timeframe, Users must either agree to the revised Regulations or reject them and end the Newsletter services contract.

Disputes arising from concluded Agreements are subject to the jurisdiction of Polish law.
